SATISFIED WITH SCHEDULE.

President Golt and Manager Allen Return from Milwaukee.

President Golt and Manager Allen returned from Milwaukee yesterday and expressed themselves as much pleased with the Western League schedule as adopted. As originally drawn, the schedule presented some objectionable features to Indianapolis, as it entailed some hard jumps for the club, but on the objections being presented changes were made. McFarland has accepted terms.

CLEAN SPARRING MATCH

GARDNER-BEZENAH MILL MADE JUST A PRETTY EXHIBITION.

The Usual "Draw" Decision Brought Out-Gardner Forced the Fighting.

It was a clean exhibition, and not much more, that Oscar Gardner and Eugene Bezenah put up at the Empire Theater last night. The house was crowded. Referee Creasey announced that the men had agreed that if they were both on their feet and in equally good condition at the end of the standing in front of the house occupied by tenth round neither should be given the de- a Mrs. Sweeney, 407 East Ohio. He called cision. The two men were good-humored to Hammond and said he wished to talk to throughout the contest. Gardner showed him. He crossed over, and after a few of the theater had been warned that Indianit would probably mean no more boxing contests if a knock-out "happened." Gardner is known as a fighter who would rather train in the ring than with a sparover hard muscles with no flesh between. Bezenah's body was smooth and looked softer than his opponent's. Both men weighed under 135 pounds. From the first Gardner was the aggressor. The men had fought four times before and Bezenah was wary. His admirable footwork he used to the best advantage. He dodged again and again as Gardner tried to keep him in a corner of the ring and land with one of his swings or jabs. Gardner walked after his man, laughing. At the end of the first round Bezenah poked Gardner smartly in the face. The second round saw the men well mixed up, but with little effect. It was all in-fighting, at Gardner's pleasure. Gardner went after Bezenah in the third and fourth rounds with the apparent intention of getting him in a corner and punishing him. Bezenah hopped about, sparring rapdly and with good taste. One spectator said it was like Gardner were trying to catch a chicken. Bezenah suddenly became confident and created a surprise by striking Gardner in face, jaw and wind. Gardner two stiff blows in the face in quick succesion. As the bell rang the crowd cheered wildly for Bezenah. It was all his.

gressively in the fifth and succeeded in landng several hot ones on Gardner's face. Gardner smiled as if it were play for him. Bezenah gained more favor from the spectators. It was noticeable that his wind was not as good as Garner's. Between rounds Gardner sat down on his chair with the air that it was only a custom, and he didn't need the rest. Bezenah looked grateful for his second's work on him. Gardner took the thing a little more seriously in the sixth round and punched Bezenah all 'round the ring. Bezenah could not make a stand. His footwork was pretty in escaping the punishment that would have befailen him had Gardner caught him right. It was Gardner's round. Both men boxed through the seventh, neither landing effective blows. The eighth, ninth and tenth rounds were all fast. Gardner forced Bezenah into a corner and Bezenah, in worming out, gave it to his opponent hotly. There was an old cut over Gardner's right eye and Bezenah opened it. Blood flowed down over Gardner's face and breast, and it excited the plained. It was give and take through the ninth, and the hardest blow in the tenth was a right-hand swing on Bezenah's chin. It was probably the hardest blow of the It was not followed up and the round and the contest ended quietly. Gardner had been the steady, eager prize fighter, with pistonlike arms; Bezenah had been the shifty boxer able to take care of himself. It was Gardner fighting Bezenah all the way

John Cramer was given the decision in ten-round contest with "Kld" Lefeber, which was pulled off as a preliminary to the principal match. Both men were from Cincinnati. They had met several times before. Cramer was fifteen pounds the heavier and could hit harder than Lefeber. Lefeber was twice the better boxer. He found it hard to stand the pace, and at one time it looked like another of Cramer's heavy swings in the right place would send him dreaming. The crowd liked the contest, because it was battle royal that preceded it. It was Lefeber's match until the sixth round. Cramer could not land a blow that amounted to ther. In the seventh round Cramer beat Lefeber into the rattles by throwing his ville artist of professional reputation. The weight on him. There was nothing clever programme will close with some trick b negroes—one so big that he did not know his strength and had bovine awkwardness nammer each other around the ring, rolling in the resin and breathing like engine puffs. Two boys about twelve years old were put and thin-armed, they swelled about like oldtime ring men and fought with the airs of "scienced pugs." A FIGHT WITH A KNIFE. Troubles Between John D. Smith and

George E. Hammond.

As the result of a quarrel between George E. Hammond, a veterinary surgeon, and John D. Smith, a cooper, both men are under arrest, Hammond being at the City Hospial for treatment and Smith locked up at the police station. A brass-handled knife played a prominent part in the affair. Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock Smith, while walking on West Ohlo street, saw Hammond across the street from him, himself more of a fighter than Bezenah, and words pulled a knife and attacked Hamit was easy to see that he was capable of mond. Bicycle Police Lancaster and Streit arrested both men, sending Hammond to the medical college of the Uniapolis would not stand for a knock-out, and versity of Indianapolis, corner Market and Senate avenue, for temporary treatment. In speaking of the affair Smith said that Hammond had alienated his wife's affec-tions and had broken up his home, Mrs. Smith for some time living with Mrs. Sweering partner, and when he stripped in his street. When he went to talk to Hammond corner it seemed that his skin was stretched a number of not highly complimentary names passed between them, and seeing Hammond put his hand back of him as if to draw a pistol or a knife he thought there was surely trouble coming, so decided to start it. Smith claims that his wife was at Mrs. Sweeney's for the purpose of meeting Hammond. Hammond says that his visits to Mrs. Sweeney's was not for that He also claims that he did not use a knife, nor did he strike Smith, acting only on the defensive. In this he is corroborated by several witnesses who saw the trouble. Mrs. Smith was standing in the doorway and witnessed the trouble also, and it was she who took the knife away from her husband after he had been thrown to the walk by Hammond. Smith's wound on the leg i an ugly one, and it is thought to have been inflicted by his own knife when he fell. Hammond lived at 510 West Washington street.

THE BACCALAUREATE SERMON University of Indianapolis Students Will Listen to It To-Day.

Indianapolis will listen to a baccalaureate sermon from the president of the university Church at 4 o'clock. Dr. J. Cumming Smith, who was to have spoken to-day at the vesper services, will speak on next Sunday in College and of the Medical, Dental and Law colleges will meet in the rotunda of the Denison Hotel at 3:45, and, all wearing the class color, crimson, will pass over to the church promptly at 4 o'clock, where they will be joined by the young ladies of the classes, who will assemble in the church parlors at Plymouth. They will occupy seats in the middle and front of the house, and as they enter the university band will softly play the voluntary. The music of the afternoon will be furnished partly by the glee club and partly by the choir o Plymouth Church, under the direction of Glee Club. Miss Georgia Galvin, of Butler College, will sing a solo. A large corps of ushers has been provided. The seats are not reserved for students in particular, and the public is invited to be present. The ushers will be known by the royal purple, the university color, which they wear. The trus tees and faculty will be seated near the front on either side of the senior class.

Y. M. C. A. Basket Ball.

The game of basket ball scheduled for next Wednesday evening with the Cincinnati team has been canceled, and Manager Harden immediately wired to Lafayette and arhard fight. There was no reason given in the message from Cincinnati for canceling ball game. Charles Craig and Morris Bryan will give an exhibition cakewalk before the game. During the usual intermission there will be a wire act by C. D. Burton, a vaudecycle riding by Lafever and Scoby, two very clever performers.

Life depends on the blood because the blood carries to all parts of the body the nutritive elements necessary to sustain it. What if these nutritive elements are absent? What if they are supplanted by poisonous, effete matter and disease germs?

The first result is disease-partial death. The final result is the same as from loss of blood. All disease is traceable to impurity or weakness of the blood and that is the reason the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures so many different diseases -it purifies and vitalizes the blood - makes it rich, red and healthy-fills it with nutriment for the starving nerves and Consumption is properly a dis-ease of the blood—so is scrofula -so is rheumatism. They look like different diseases but one medicine will relieve all three. "I am using a good many of your medicines in my practice," writes Dr. Joseph Fike, of Lost Springs, Marion Co., Kansas. "Ten years ago a patient of mine was badly affected with that dreadful disease scrofula. Her mouth and throat were in an awful condition, and there were lumps on the outside below the jaws the size of a hen's egg. Other doctors said it was a fatal case. I felt confident that none of my remedies would benefit her any. It came to my mind that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended for such cases, so I gave it to her as directed. Five bottles cured her and she is well to-day. She is married now and has three healthy children." Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.
